Community Comments and Requests:

- a. Report from Reynoldsburg Visitors and Community Activities Bureau Executive Director Mary Hudson

(See attached document marked Exhibit A and incorporated herein)

Mr. Hills thanked Mrs. Hudson for the report, and thanked the board for the work that continues to be ongoing.

Mrs. Hudson: Thank you very much. After I finished it, it's like you always forget something, and there's a lot of good things happening with the State and its budget and with tourism, because the Department of Development, which the Department of Travel and Tourism is under, is looking at privatizing so quite a few of the people in our organizations, have been sitting at the table, so it's been really, really an exciting time. Sitting with the new Administration, they've got some fantastic ideas and one of the nice things always to say, is that they totally understand the importance of the development aspect of tourism. There's three top businesses in the State - it's tourism, which you can't out-source; it's agriculture; and education. So we're happy that they are letting a lot of the people in the tourism industry sit at the table as they go forward and plan for what's going to happen to Ohio. So, thank you very much.

Mr. Hills: Thank you.
